The letter also urges financial institutions to pay special attention to 11 specific fair lending activities, including enhanced employee training, internal second review programs for loan applications that might otherwise be denied, participation on multi-lender mortgage review boards and affirmative marketing and call programs.

All national banks are urged to review, revise and/or expand their existing practices to ensure that they comply with the principles of fair lending.

Questions regarding the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's expectations should be directed to the Compliance Management Department at (202) 874-4446.
